FACULTY

Always interested in the activities of their students, the faculty of Ashland High communicate with the students through extracurricular activities as well as through "in the classroom" work. An annual event is the male faculty-Letterman basketball game. Although not a game of technical perfection — in fact no perfection at all — the game was enjoyed by students and faculty alike. Such activities help keep up the outstanding relationship between A.H.S. students and the faculty.

School board members are left to right: Dr. Daniel Engel, Mr. Jack Williams, Mr. Robert O'Hara, Mr. Dave Fortmiller, Mr. Howard Wiley. Mrs. Irene Roach, clerk, takes notes while Superintendent Stanley Jobe and Assistant Superintendent Verne Speirs present school business.

Mr. Stanley Jobe, superintendent of Ashland School District #5.

Mr. Verne Speirs, assistant superintendent of Ashland Schools.

SERVE FAITHFULLY

Supervising thirty-one teachers and the non-certified staff and at the same time organizing the activities of 600 students at AHS undoubtedly add a few grey hairs to the head of principal Gaylord Smith.

Outside activities of Mr. Smith include being president of Rotary Club, Chairman City Recreation Committee, President Southern Oregon Conference, and maintaining membership in several organizations—National Association Secondary Principals—also the Oregon Association—, National Education Association, Oregon Education Association, and Ashland Education Association. In his leisure time, Mr. Smith enjoys golfing and fishing.

Principal Gaylord Smith

Giving the boys of AHS the benefit of his advice and aiding with office administrative details are two main considerations of Oscar "Bud" Silver, boys' dean and assistant principal. He also directs the athletic activities of the high school.

Counseling the girls of AHS is just one of the numerous duties of Mrs. Margaret Zwick, dean of girls. Besides aiding and advising the girls, she also assists with attendance. This year Mrs. Zwick taught an ungraded English class comprised of the top students of all three classes.

SECRETARIES OFFER SERVICE WITH A SMILE

Mrs. Barbara Wight and Mrs. Jacquelin Lewis perform many tasks to keep the school running smoothly. Mrs. Lewis is secretary to Mr. Smith. Mrs. Wight works at the high school only afternoons. Some of the duties of these women are making school reports to the state office, recording grades on permanent records, giving receipts for money, making announcements, and answering the telephone. They also perform many extra services for faculty and students.

SPORTS

NEW COACH GUIDES FOOTBALL

Led by John Yapple, voted the team's most inspirational player and best defensive lineman, the Ashland football team compiled a two win, six loss record this year. Dennis Ekwall was chosen best back, and Jack

Gruber was picked as the best lineman. Despite the loss of several key players, such as Ron Boyce due to a leg injury, the Grizzlies looked good most of the season and improved steadily.

From the sideline new head coach John Gray observes action of players in the game with Grants Pass.

Senior John Yapple receives the most inspirational player award from coach John Gray at the awards banquet sponsored by the Ashland High Booster Club.

TEAM TO TWO WINS

All conference center is Jim Conklin, a junior.

Coach Keil and Coach Leybold watch as play develops on field.

Pat Lorton and Tom Reid express jubilation over Ashland touchdown.

Medford player drives hard as Tade Farmer makes the tackle.

The Ashland High School Sophomore football team led by Tim Voth tied with Grants Pass and Medford for the district championship, with a 3 win, 1 loss league record. They are said to be one of the best sophomore teams Ashland has ever had. The only team to beat them in league play was the Grants Pass team, which had a large number of juniors on it.

HARRIERS WIN FIVE MEETS

Gerald Brown

Led by Gerald Brown, the Ashland High harriers piled up a 5-1 win-loss record. The only loss by the team was a close one to Grants Pass. In the district meet the team took fourth despite Gerald Brown's first place finish. Gerald went on to the state meet and placed third. It was one of the most successful cross country seasons Ashland has ever had. After regular season play, the team also competed in several other meets. They placed third as a team at the Eugene Invitational with Brown taking individual first place.

UNDERCLASSMEN DOMINATE VARSITY TEAM

Encircling that "hard-to-hit" basket are Dennis Ekwall, Bob DeBoer, Ross Coldwell, Dave Barger, Bill Jury, Art Kapteyn, Randy Nelson, Jeff Trost, Bill Hardy, Jack Gruber, Joe Raynes, Wayne Calvary, Kerry Lindley, Captain Dean Samuelson.

With the youngest team in many years, the 1963-64 Grizzly basketball team improved steadily throughout the year. "This was the building year for basketball at Ashland," said

Coach Keil. The team had many good games and won one conference game over Crater. Captain Dean Samuelson was high point man for the team.

GRIZZLY BASKETBALL TEAMS IMPROVE

Bill Jury, Joe Raynes, and Randy Nelson guard against a Grants Pass out-of-bounds play.

Driving in for a hook shot past a Klamath Falls player is Dean Samuelson.

At the right, Dennis Ekwall, Dave Barger, and Medford players prepare for the rebound as Jeff Trost shoots over the top of his Medford opponent.

A.S.H. WRESTLERS HAVE

Glenn Smith, a 156—pound senior two year letterman, pins a Crater wrestler. He earned the plaque for most outstanding senior wrestler. At the Klamath Tournament, he took first.

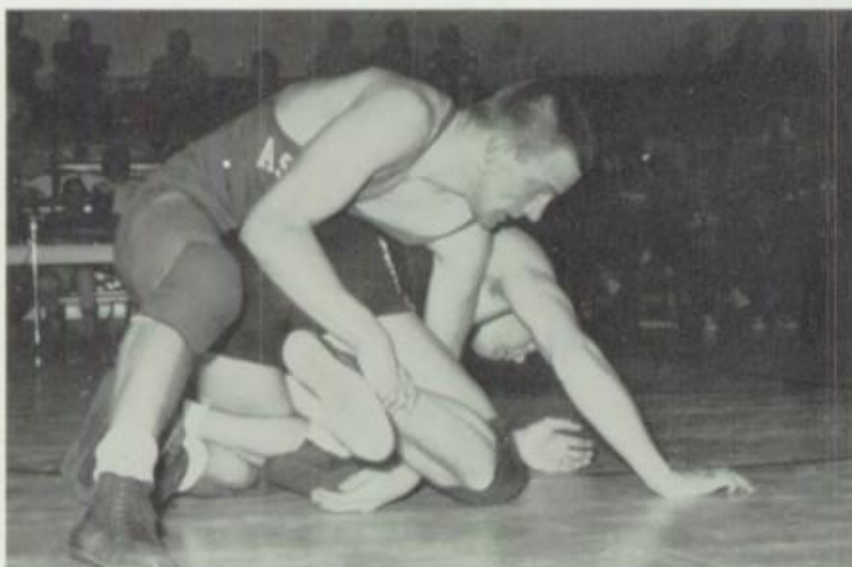

Bill Hutchinson, a 106—pound senior letterman, pins Medford's Varsity wrestler. Bill was named the most outstanding J.V. wrestler.

BEST SEASON IN YEARS

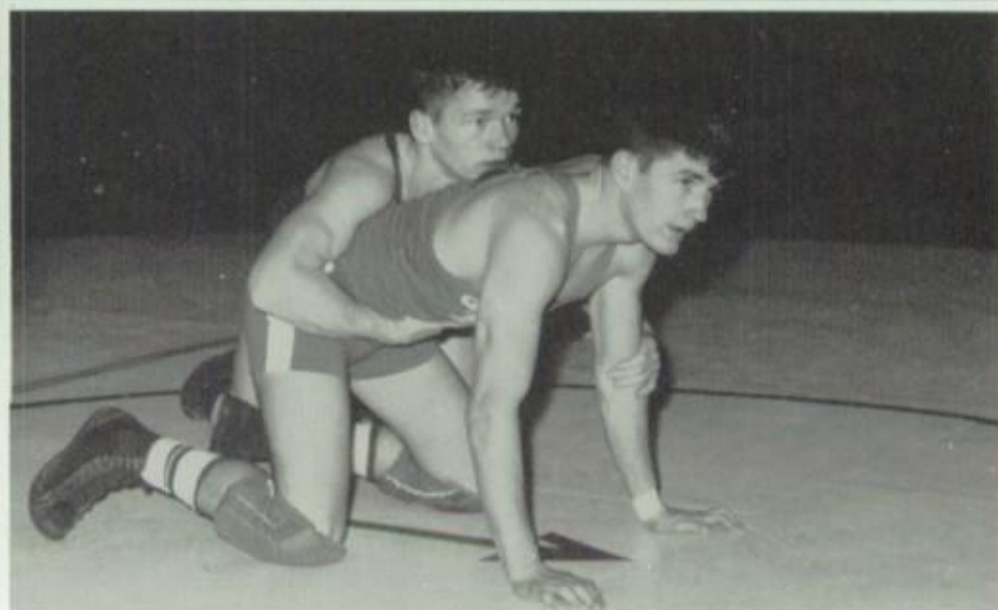

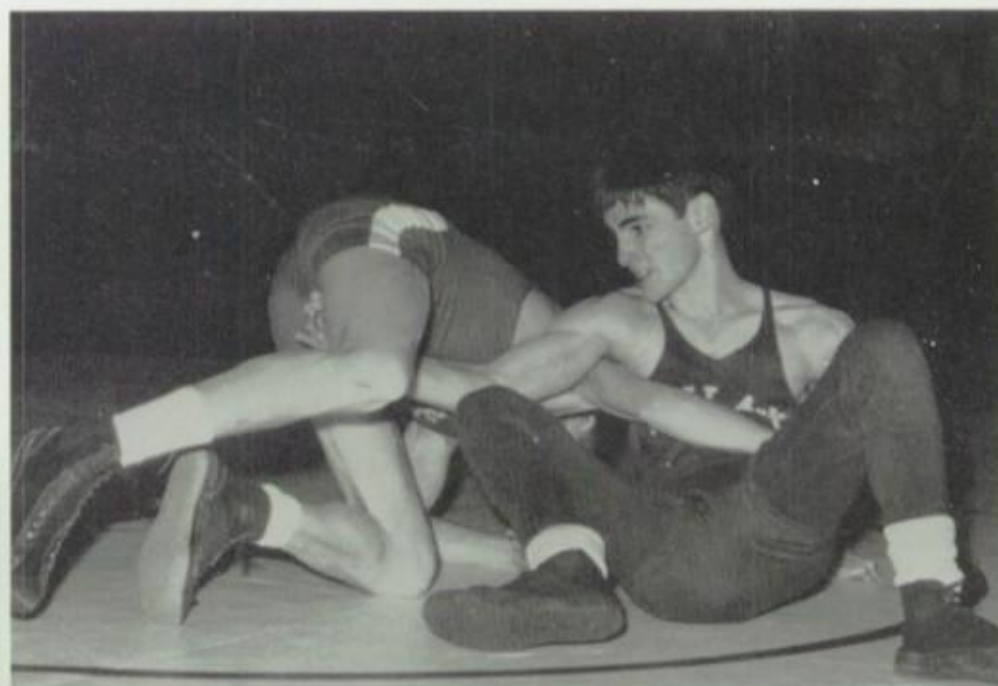

J.V. wrestlers are Art Bartol, Tom Reid, Warren Stubblefield, Dan Roberts, Jim Tyler, Dan Oviatt, Chuck Harper, Rod Georgianna, Steve Buchannan, Bill Retter, Steve Ross. Standing are coaches Hall and Mobley.

Clayton Swartz, a 108 pound junior two year letterman, reverses his Grants Pass opponent. Swartz received first place at Klamath Wrestling Tournament and was high point letterman of the Ashland wrestlers.

Mike Blair, a 108 pound senior two year letterman, rides Crater man. Mike was second at the Klamath Tournament and second high point letterman.

BASEBALL TEAM BEATS MEDFORD

Varsity team members are Dean Samuelson, Ross Coldwell, Jan Susee, Tim Thompson, Terry Clark, Dave Barger, Bob DeBoer, Rick Clark, Richard Price, Bob Johnson. Kneeling is Bill Leybold.

Leading batter on this year's team was Dean Samuelson. John Rhodes had the best earned run average for pitchers. It was a good season as Ashland placed fourth in the conference, beating Medford 3 out of 4 conference games to put them in last place.

Worried look on Coach Leybold's face depicts team's plight on this occasion.

3 OUT OF 4 CONFERENCE GAMES

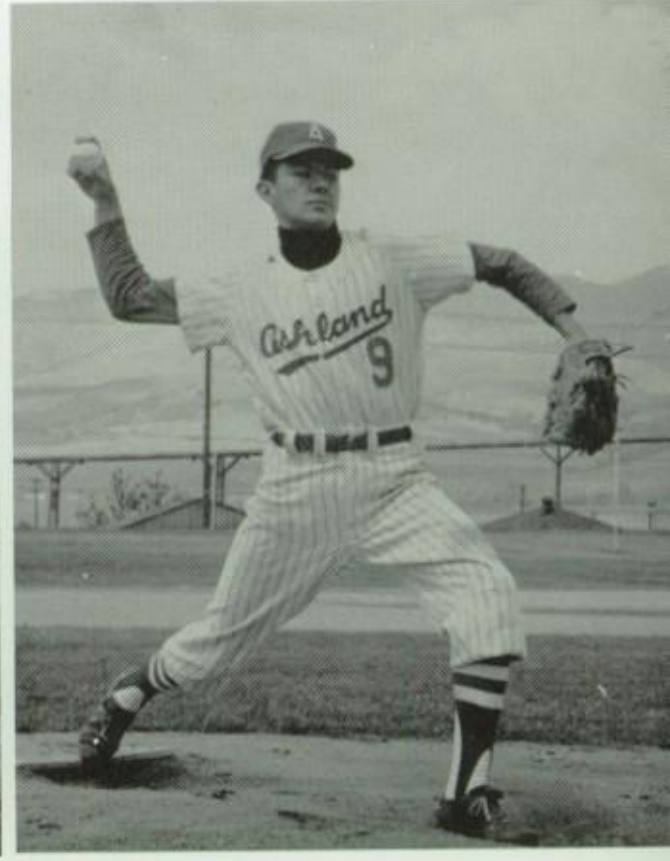

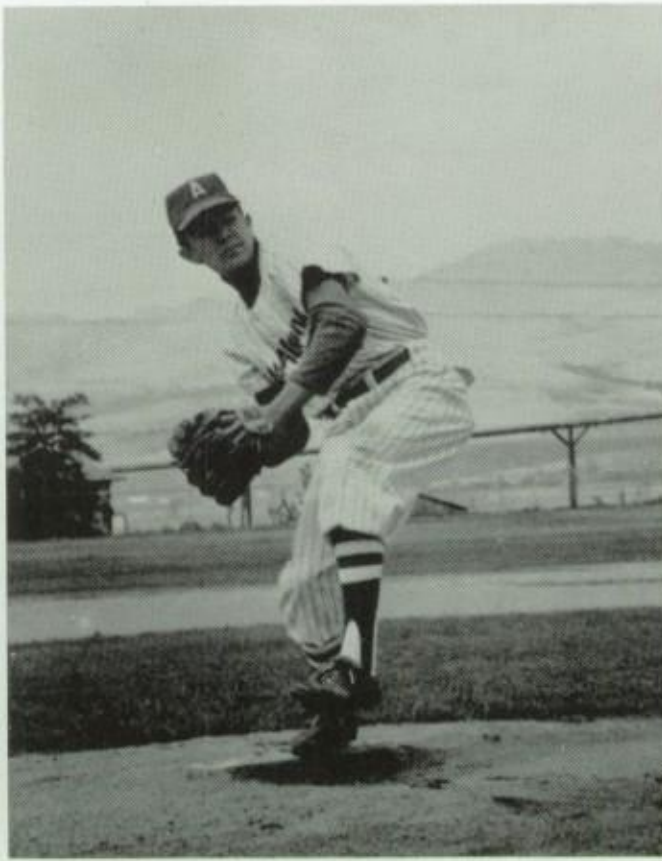

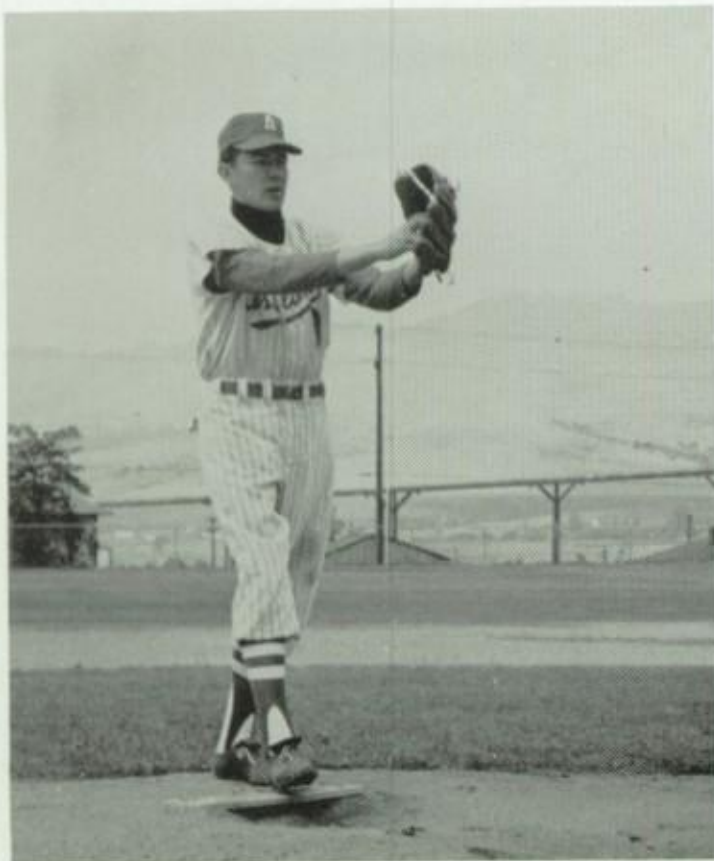

Dave Barger releases the ball during game at Klamath as other Ashland players prepare to field the ball if it is hit toward them.

SEVERAL SCHOOL RECORDS

Dave Lohman sends discus flying far into the air during track meet at Ashland.

Grimacing, Wayne Calvary clears a hurdle ahead of a St. Mary's runner at Ashland track.

Showing good form, Dennis Ekwall broad jumps during meet in Klamath Falls.

TRACK TEAM TAKES FIRST VICTORY

Randy Nelson displays high jump form as he clears the bar at 5 feet 6 inches during Klamath Falls meet.

Dave Barger shows his ability in the pole vault. Dave set a new school record of 12 feet 9 inches.

Ashland placed in a tie for twelfth place at the state meet, ahead of every other team in our conference except Medford. Gerald Brown took second in the two-mile and Ron Boyce took third in the 100 yard dash.

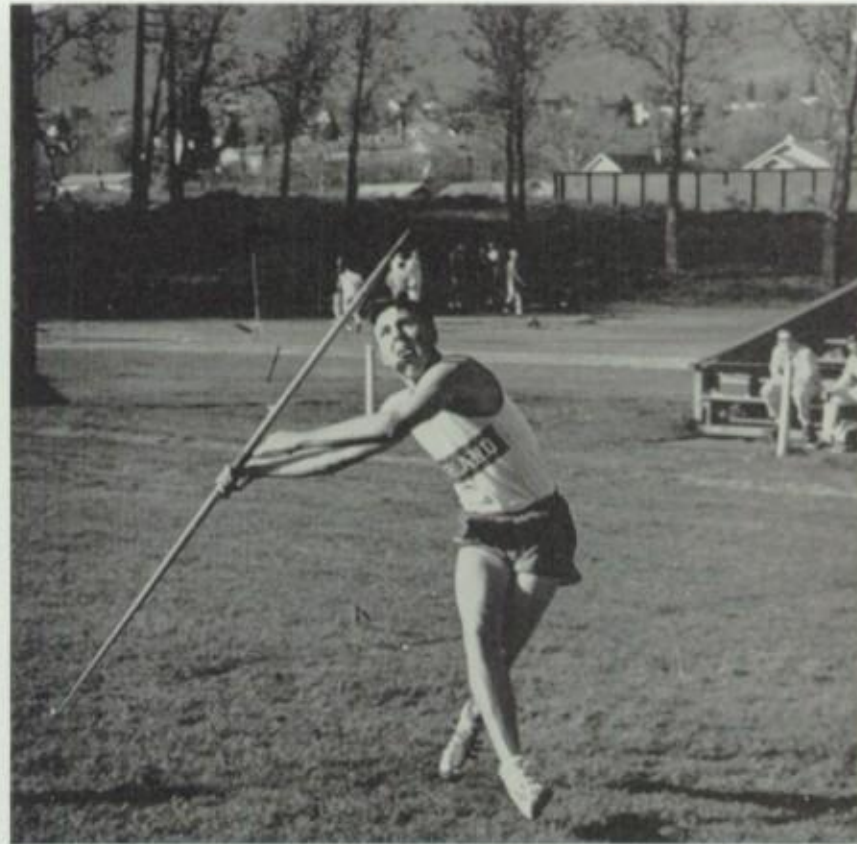

OVER CRATER IN SCHOOL HISTORY

By running a 9.75 100 yard dash and a 22.3 220 yard dash, Ron Boyce broke both school records in each event.

Gerald Brown, new 2 mile school record holder, runs hard at Klamath Falls to place first.

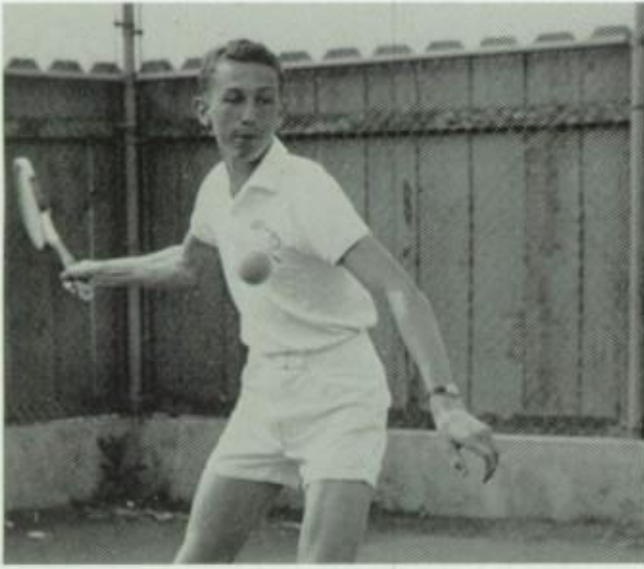

With a throw of 208 plus feet, Gary Pennington set a new school mark in the javelin throw.

The Ashland High Golf team was still in the growing stage in this its second year. Dian Murphy and Bill Hutchinson shared medalist honors this year with Dian receiving medalist honors in a majority of the matches. The Ashland team had its one victory in an up-state tournament over North Eugene. Mr. Earl Iba, senior, coached the team.

ROOM AND CLUB REPRESENTATIVES WORK TOGETHER FOR A BETTER SCHOOL

ROGUE NEWS REPORTS SCHOOL LIFE

Linda Leigh, business manager; Dave White, sports editor; Penny Clements, advertising manager; and Kathy Tilford, editor, discuss management ideas for the Rogue News.

ROGUE STAFF STRIVES FOR INTERESTING BOOK

To prepare copy for publication, The Rogue staff worked the entire school year. Cropping photographs, making layouts, and writing copy were a few of the necessary activities. Some staff members solicited advertisements from Ashland merchants. The completed book is a product of hard work on the part of all the staff.

Planning a layout for the sports section are Clayton Swartz, Terry Skibby, photographer, and Jan Susee, sports editor.

F.T.A. VISITS LOCAL SCHOOLS

Vickie Latimer, Jan Torrey, and Linda Thomas, decorate the school with mistletoe for Christmas.

Future Teachers of America is an organization designed to help those desiring to be teachers. Members observed classes in various schools this year. This year F.T.A. gave a partial scholarship to a junior to attend a Summer Youth Conference on teaching. Also this year the members attended a regional conference at Roseburg.

Attending the annual initiation are Marilyn Thompson, Lloyd Stone, Isabelle Converse, Mrs. Converse, Dr. Phyllis Butler (speaker), Mrs. Susee (advisor), Linda Leigh, Barbara Long, Carl Stubblefield, John Siebert, Diane Benson, Judy Fremd, Lois Harmon, Carolyn Wolfe, and Edith Morrill.

QUILL AND SCROLL HONORS JOURNALISTS

New members, pledging themselves to uphold the standards of Quill and Scroll, are Barbara Jones, Vivian Leigh, Carolyn Wolfe, Lois Harmon, and Joan Grimm.

President Terry Skibby, Jan Susee, and Kathy Tilford conduct the induction ceremony for new members.

Quill and Scroll, the National Honor Society for high school journalists, is open to juniors and seniors who have done outstanding journalistic work and are in the upper third of their class in grade average. The faculty advisors for the school newspaper and yearbook recommend students for membership.

Lois Harmon, Carolyn Wolfe, and Edith Morrill run off on the duplicator pages for the Literary Review published annually by Quill and Scroll members.

ARTISTS COMPLETE BUSY YEAR

Several members of the art service corps, Sami Everett, John Siebert, Isabelle Converse, and Sue Chappell, work on one of the many signs which advertise and promote interest in various school activities.

Art Service Corps is a service organization. Members help teachers make bulletin board displays. Helping clubs make posters and doing any other miscellaneous art work needed in school are additional services performed by the group.

Helping to decorate the hall with pictures from the art class are Wayne Gripp, Lynda Lewis, and Barbara Long.

Jerry Guscette and Dick Knies work on an Art Service Corps poster.

THESPIANS SPONSOR SEVERAL PLAYS

Thespians, a Chapter of the National Thespians Society, is made up of students who are interested in acting and other theatrical arts. To become a member, one must accumulate ten points which are earned by participation in plays and other stage productions.

On the set of You Can't Take It With You are the Thespian members. Third row: Terry Skibby, Lynn White, Mrs. Susee, advisor; Jackie Peterson, Glen Ward, Terry Barraclough, Diane Benson, Jon Roberson, Judy Fremd, Carol Pennington, Carolyn Wolfe, Steve Bornet. Second row: Tom Reid, Chris Nashland, Gretchen Graham, Ila Kneebone, Cathy Christy, Ellen Craft, Sami Everett, Susan Hess. First row: Patti Dysert, Cloma Zupan, Joan Grimm, Jim Mayo.

Crying, "I see they have found Death!", is Death himself. Dick Knies in "Three Against Death."

Looks of apprehension dominate the faces of Ila Kneebone and Terry Barraclough as they are made up by Sami Everett and Gretchen Graham for "Three Against Death."

MAJORETTES ADD COLOR TO BAND ACTIVITIES

Sue Winkler, Barbara Newkirk, Lyn Voris, and Linda Prescott, head majorette, performed with the marching band throughout the school year.

IR.L. STUDIES EUROPEAN COMMON MARKET

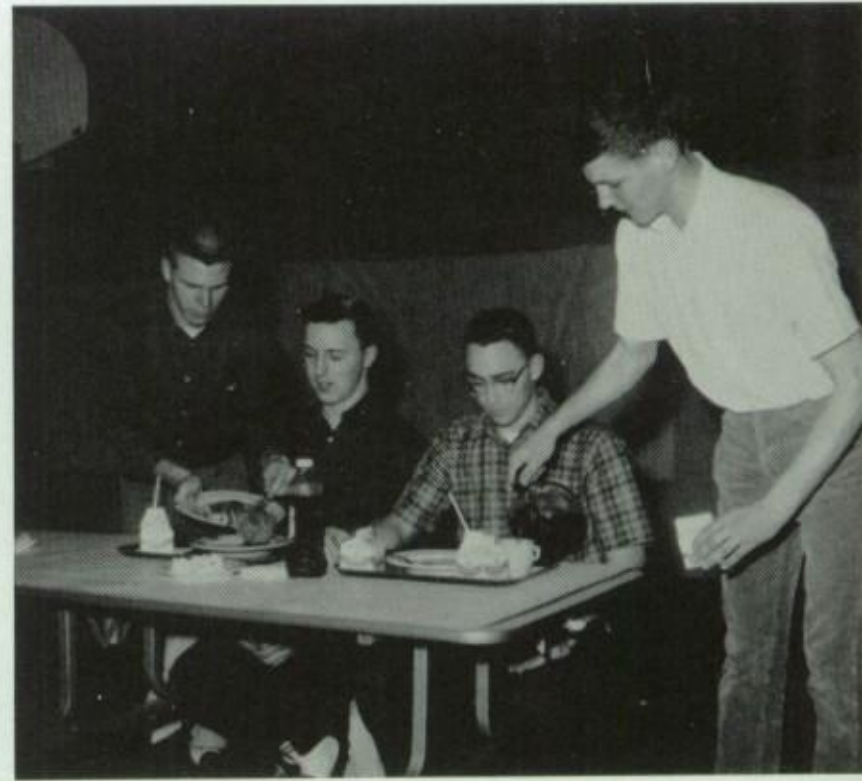

The purpose of the International Relations League is to aid students in understanding various world affairs. This year the club studied the principles of the European Common Market. Pointing out the countries involved in the Common Market is Jon Roberson, the president of the organization and also state IRL vice-president. Seated around the table are Brian Whitam, Mike Lundergan, Mike Dawkins, Judy Fremd, Marla

Drew, Janney McCarley, Barbara Jones, Diane Benson, Chris Hoberg, Charles Moore, Diane Williams, Jim Mayo, Connie Felger, and Sami Everett. Highlighting the club's activities was the state IRL Conference in Eugene where the members met in a parliamentary assembly and discussed the entrance of Great Britain into the Common Market.

LETTERMEN SERVE AT PANCAKE DINNER

Initiation is an experience all Lettermen remember. Ron Boyce administers a swat to initiate Charles Kane. Awaiting their turns are Charles McKeen, Ken Preston, Jan Susee, and Clayton Swartz.

Ashland High School Lettermen's Club, composed of 36 boys who have lettered in varsity sports, had a successful year. The club led by Ron Boyce, president, helped create school spirit throughout the year. The club sponsored two parties for club members. They also helped make the annual Pancake Dinner a success and donated their share of the money to the athletic fund. Another of their donations was a gift to the Olympic fund which helps sponsor the U.S. Olympic team.

FLAG GIRLS PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT

The only Flag Girl Squad in the state of Oregon, Ashland High Flag Girls are approaching the stage of becoming a precision drill squad. Members pass tryouts and must remain active and maintain a 2.0 grade point average. While one of the primary goals of the club is to provide half-time entertainment for football and basketball games and attend out-of-state competition and performances, the main goal is to give the members a sense of responsibility and coordination as well as to further their leadership abilities through participation and cooperation.

GIRLS RECREATIONAL ASSOCIATION

To become a G.R.A. member, girls must go through an initiation. Below, Margy Briggs and Jane Smith help Lynda Lewis walk in "worms."

New members during initiation must play a game of ball rolling by blowing a ping-pong ball. Below are Barbara Newkirk, Connie Peterson, Virgie Trott, Chris Burke, Mary Peabody, Amy Helm, Linda Tucker, and Sharon Jacobs.

PROMOTES PHYSICAL FITNESS

Football brings out the man in all of us. Teresa Krug, carries the ball as Linda Tucker blocks Lyla Voth, Vickie Budden

G.R.A. sponsored a competitive basketball game between Ashland and Crater. Playing are Diann Collver, Crater girl, Linda Tucker, and Kola Hobson.

Below are G.R.A. executive officers Diana Thomas; Kathy Rucker, intramural director; Kathy Tilford; Margy Briggs, secretary; Jane Smith, treasurer; Dian Murphy; and Sandy Watts, president.

POM PON GIRLS FORMED THIS YEAR

Pom Pon Girls is a new organization formed to take the place of the former Pep Club. During ball games, they participated in yells and also performed in half-time shows.

GRIZZLY KNIGHTS PROVIDE NEEDED SERVICES

One of the chores performed by Grizzly Knights is the sweeping of the gym floor during half-time at the basketball games. Other services include supervising the parking of cars at school functions and patrolling the grounds during football games.

Mike Dawkins and Gerald Brown happily clean the gym floor between halves of a basketball game.

STUDENTS HELP RUN OFFICES

Dian Murphy, Marsha Winkler, Mary Brostad, Pat Lorton, Judy Fremd, Cloma Zupan, and Patti Dysert helped Mrs. Zwick, the dean of girls. Running errands, taking and delivering messages were some of their duties.

Mrs. Barbara Wight and Mrs. Jacquelin Lewis welcomed help in the office from Diane Benson, Georgia Meyer, Marcia Riddle, Sandra Roll, Joyce Mitchell, Marilyn Thompson, and Sue Conner.

MUSIC GROUPS ENTERTAIN THROUGHOUT SCHOOL YEAR

Here the Ashland High Band plays in formal concert with a guest conductor. Throughout the year, the band performed at many functions. The band presented three formal concerts. Also it provided music and half-time entertainment at all home football games. From the band two smaller musical groups evolved—the Pep Band and the dance band. The Pep Band appeared at all home basketball games to aid in rousing pep and enthusiasm.

The Ashland High orchestra students this year learned to play guitars and mandolins in addition to the usual instruments. Playing the new instruments are Dolly Byrd, Judy Cornwall, Bernard Hamm, Lois Harmon, Susan Gwaltney, and Don Scripter.

GIRLS' LEAGUE GIVES SCHOLARSHIP

This year Girls' League instituted the Big Sister program. Junior and senior girls were assigned little sisters from the sophomore class. The Big Sisters assisted the sophomores in becoming oriented to senior high school life. Another function of Girls' League was to raise money for a scholarship for a senior girl.

Girls' League officers were Diane Williams, president; Teresa Krug, vice-president; Kathy Tilford, secretary-treasurer.

CHORUS TAKES PART IN KBES-TV PROGRAM

HUMANITIES SEMINAR ENLARGES PROGRAM

Humanities Seminar consisted of students selected by the faculty to study and discuss art, music, and literature centered on topics of universal appeal. This year there were two seminar groups meeting at separate times in the homes of members. Mrs. Margaret Zwick was the advisor of both groups.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY PROMOTES SCHOLARSHIP

New members were inducted into the National Honor Society during a school assembly. Among those being sworn in are Steve Bornet, Teresa Krug, Barbara Siebenlist, Dolly Byrd, Diane Benson, Kathy Hussey, and Linda Brown. Others are Jon Hamby, Steve Hull, Richard Willis, Nancy Dayton, Edith Morrill, Chris Hoberg, and April Lewis.

At graduation, Nancy Dayton, John Siebert, and all other members of National Honor Society wore special pendants, purchased by the organization this year, to give recognition to the members.

Each year members for National Honor Society are chosen from the top ten percent of the junior class and top five percent of the senior class who are not already members. Qualifications for membership are scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

ACTIVITIES

The Ashland High Homecoming officially opened the year's many and varied activities. Such events as the Sadie Hawkins dance and the Cupid's Ball filled the year with many memories. Election week was filled with anticipation and many things to do. Each school play and the school show, "Year of Jubilo," enabled the students to exhibit their talent. The Prom and graduation ended the year with all the students leaving and remembering the fun, work, joy, and tears, of a wonderful year.

SOPHOMORES WELCOMED AT DANCE

Highlighting the events of Welcome Sophomore week was the Welcome Sophomore Dance, sponsored by the Rally Squad with music by the Navarros.

HOMECOMING QUEEN CROWNED AT GAME

Chosen by the Lettermen, Homecoming princesses are Donna Warren, Linda Thomas, Sandy Babcock, Teresa Krug, and DeAnn Meggers.

Cries of "Beat Cavemen!" and colorful signs reminding everyone of the Ashland-Grants Pass game opened Homecoming Week. To build enthusiasm and team support, the cheerleaders held a spirited rally in the study hall on Thursday with a live band. Adding to the excitement, was the bonfire built by the sophomores that night. Two of the most popular events of the week followed the next day-the noise assembly and the parade downtown. Climaxing the week was the football game and the coronation of Homecoming Queen, Donna Warren.

Donna Warren squeals with delight as she is crowned Homecoming Queen during half-time.

The Ashland High School Band along with the majorettes and the Flag Girls marched into formation to present a half-time show.

PARADE, FOOTBALL GAME, AND DANCE

Charioteer Diane Williams travels behind Don Scriptor in Homecoming parade.

Chris Burke and other sophomores sell autographs for the Grants Pass coffin as a prehomecoming project. Among those watching Steve Bornet sign are Dick Knies, Dave Barger, Clayton Swartz, Dave Dunson, Dennis Ekwall, Bonnie Byrd, Bill Hutchinson, and Larry Miller.

The homecoming bonfire blazes high as the students enjoy this traditional activity.

Diligent work on the bonfire progresses as Lyla Voth, Bill Holtgrave, Dave Duty, Mark Hays, and Terry Clark throw on fuel.

At noon, students enjoy noise making in the study hall on Pep Day.

HIGHLIGHT HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

On the Senior float, Dean Samuelson points out to Helen Colwell that Greg Sorenson has conquered the caveman.

The Junior class float won first place with "Dreams of Victory" in the Homecoming Parade.

"Last Night I Dreamed We Clubbed The Cavemen" was the theme of the sophomore float which placed third.

Sophomores David Duty, Bobbie Pfaff, Jennie Madison, Bill Holtgrave, standing on top the bonfire material, prepare to burn a caveman in effigy.

The J.V. rally squad, Linea Sander, Sandy Forney, Charla Murphy, Judy Bryant rode in a convertible pulling the Lettermen's float. Driving are Mr. Keil, Ron Boyce and Jan Susee.

SENIORS PRESENT UNUSUAL PLAY

District attorney Charles Moore sums up case before jury composed of Carl Stubblefield, Marilyn Martin, Linda Leigh, Bonnie Bounds, Carol Parker, Jan Hassell, Cheryl Newton, Ron Boyce, Sharon Bradford, and Cynthia Holtgrave.

At the right, unruly witness Don Greene is dragged from court room by Jerry Guscette.

Chris Hoberg, a witness, adds a touch of humor as she is sworn in by court clerk, Bob Kufner.

Terry Barraclough, Riley Sauers, Gretchen Graham, and Cathy Christy keep the action of the play moving along.

STUDENTS WEAR UNUSUAL COSTUMES ATSADIE HAWKINS DANCE

Bill Wiley and Janey McCarley read the marriage license carefully before making the final decision. Sami Everett performed the ceremony.

CUPID'S BALL IS THEME OF VALENTINE DANCE

Dennis Ekwall, crowned King of the Cupid's Ball with his date, Suzanne Gwaltney, is surrounded by his court: Ron Boyce, Betty Schwiebert, Tade Farmer, Iris Ponder, Glenn Smith, Gail Hagerbaumer, Terry Clark, Donal Ann Brace, and Brian Whitham, Paula Lowery.

Enjoying the gaiety of the Cupid's Ball sponsored by the Student Council are Dave Barger, Pat Lorton, and Bob DeBoer. Chatting on the sidelines are Georgia Meyer and Steve Bornet.

ELECTIONS AROUSE STUDENT INTEREST

Stressing sincerity and diligence, Dave Lohman victoriously campaigns for the office of Student Body President. Waiting their turns at campaigning are Tana Laird, Barbara Jones, Trudee Lewis, Teresa Krug, Dwight Morrill, and Tim Thompson.

Below—surrounded by an atmosphere of suspense, Tade Farmer is registered by the election board, Marcy Tretsvon, Vicki Latimer, and John Yaple. Casting their ballots are Charla Murphy and Gail Hagerbaumer.

Below—amidst screams of delight, tears of happiness stream down Pat Lorton's cheeks as she is announced the new rally queen. With her are other newly elected cheerleaders, Judy Bryant, Betty Schwiebert, and Suzanne Gwaltney.

DANCES PROVIDE FUNDS FOR SCHOOL ORGANIZATIONS

Attempting to interpret modern art, are guests of the Beatnik Party, sponsored by the Thespians.

Typical of all AHS informal dances was the UT step as done at the Sophomore Welcome Dance, sponsored by the Cheerleaders to raise funds for their outfits.

Crowned Spring Queen by Nancy Nickeson, is Linda Wenker at the Stag Stomp, sponsored by the Flag Girls.

ALL SCHOOL SHOW, "THE YEAR OF JUBILO,"

Busily getting ready for the all school show are Barbara Newkirk, Cloma Zupan, Vicki Kuhlwein, and Judy Campbell.

Presented two nights in the school gymnasium, "The Year of Jubilo" was a variety show of music and dance. Co-directors were Mr. W. Bernard Windt and Mr. Raoul Maddox. The program consisted of musical numbers by the chorus, orchestra, and dance band and of other student acts selected through tryouts. Each student group was responsible for rehearsing and perfecting its own presentation.

Tom Thompson portrayed the "Lincoln Era" with his harmonica solo of "Dixie".

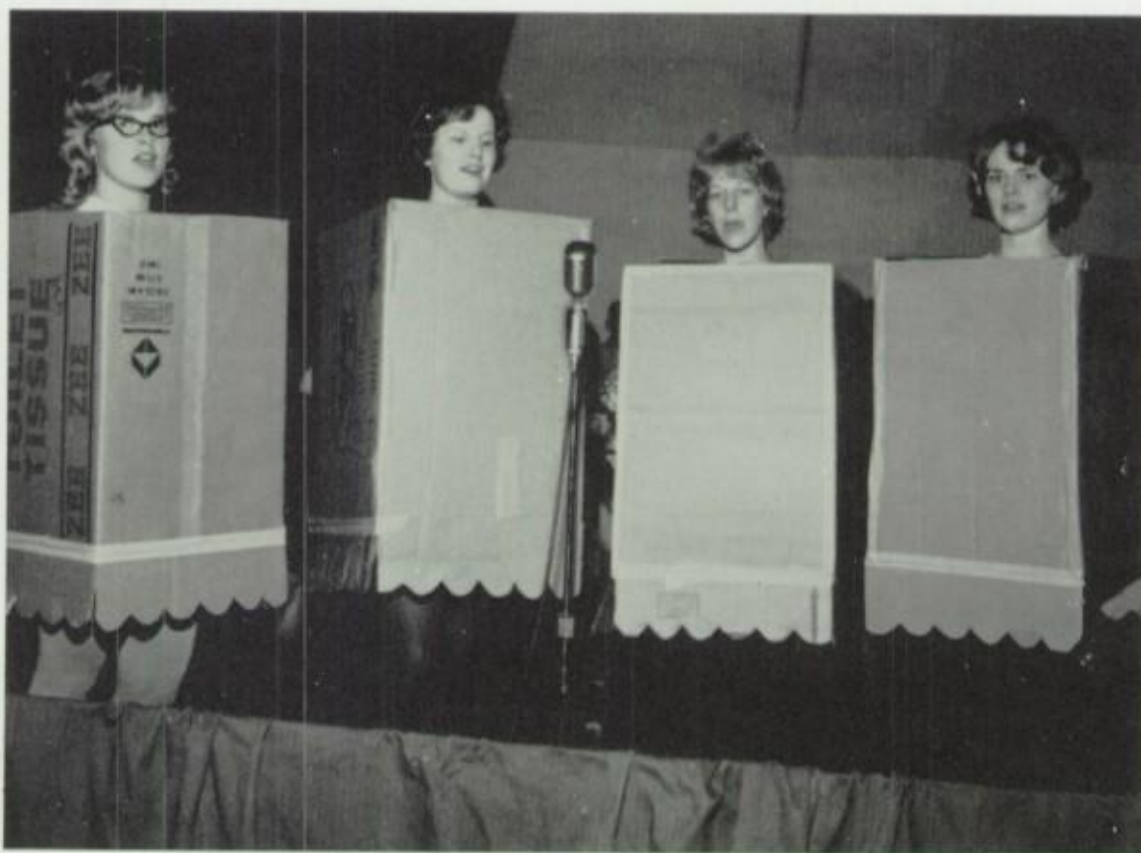

Right in step, Barbara Jones, Jon Roberson, Suzanne Gwaltney, Dennis Ekwall, Bonnie Bounds, and Rick Oliver danced a festive version of the Samba.

PROVIDED FUN FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS.

Sami Everett and Trudee Lewis, two of the M. C.'s added merriment to the show with jokes.

Joyce Hassell, Ann Johnston, Sue Conner, and Crystal Ruth, representing "Little Boxes", sing a popular folk song of that name.

The male faculty members Mr. Leybold, Mr. Windt, Mr. Mobley, Mr. Mearns, Mr. Day, Mr. Keil, Mr. Silver, Mr. Smith, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Gray, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Wright join together to sing about Mr. Barlow, the drunken sailor.

Trying desperately to create a cloud out of a silk parachute are Don Mann and other juniors.

QUEEN OF JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

As tradition dictates, the junior class spent long hours decorating Britt Ballroom for the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Arriving couples got a glimpse of paradise as they walked through golden gates into a setting of "Heaven On Earth." Creating impressions of enchantment was a ceiling of clouds and sparkling stars, made effective by hues of blue and gold. Dominating the decorations was a mosaic-mirror fountain, surrounded by a cloud of white. Highlighting the evening was the crowning of Cloma Zupan as Prom Queen by Mike Torresan, junior class president. After the coronation, dancing was resumed, and at midnight the most enchanting dance of the year was over. But the corsages, programs, and happy memories will always be treasured as tokens of a wonderful night.

Under a ceiling of clouds and stars, guests of the Junior-Senior Prom danced. In the foreground are Kandy Korthase, Bill Hardy, Jack Gruber and Tana Laird.

JUNE 4, 1964

ACTIVITIES

Seniors held their annual banquet and dance at the Rogue Valley Country Club at Medford. At the banquet were Joe Raynes, Bob Kufner, Bonnie Bounds, Melody Bounds, Ann Johnston, and Joyce Hassell.

Graduation seemed very close when the time arrived to get caps and gowns. Issuing them to Betty Davis and Judy Scherer are Cynthia Holtgrave and John Yapple.

Marching solemnly through floral covered arches, members of the class of 1964 received their diplomas on June 4. Over 40 scholarships were awarded to this, the school's largest, graduating class. During Senior Week, special graduation activities included the Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate, Commencement, and the all night party.

After graduation parents and friends rush to congratulate the graduates.

OUTSTANDING STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARDS

The results of a challenge between Crater High and Ashland High student body presidents is Ray White's privilege of shoving a pie into the face of Connie Felger.

FIRST GIRL ELECTED STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

Connie Felger, student body president, was in charge of all student affairs. She was general manager of the school show and chairman of the A.H.S. homecoming activities and the Cupid's Ball. Always a hard worker and outstanding student, Connie is further noted for being the first girl student body president in the history of A.H.S.

Joe Raynes, student body vice-president, presided over Inter-club Council, which this year for the first time awarded a $100 scholarship to an industrial arts student.

Vicki Latimer, student body treasurer, was the official bookkeeper of student body funds.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL RUNS STUDENT AFFAIRS

Trudee Lewis, student body secretary, reads the minutes from a previous meeting. The secretary's job consisted of taking care of all student body correspondence and taking accurate minutes of every student council meeting.

Kay Newton, yell queen, devoted many hours to leading the varsity rally squad in its work of arousing school spirit before and at school athletic events.

Assuming student body offices for next year are Dave Lohman, president; Vivian Leigh, treasurer; Dwight Morrill, second vice-president; Teresa Krug, secretary; and Marla Drew, first vice-president. These new officers held executive council meetings at the end of the school year.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE OFFER LEADERSHIP

OPPORTUNITIES

Kathy Tilford and Connie Felger attended Girls' State at Willamette University in Salem, Oregon in 1963. The American Legion Auxiliary sponsored this conference.

In the summer of 1963, The American Legion sponsored Boys' State held at O.S.U. at Corvallis, Oregon. A.H.S. representatives attending this conference were kneeling: Scot Roberts, Charles Moore, Tim Thompson. Standing: Robert Manz, Gregg Sorenson, John Yaple, Ron Boyce, Joe Raynes, Terry Skibby.

STUDENTS WIN ELKS LEADERSHIP CONTEST

Each year the Ashland Elk's Lodge #944 sponsors a Youth Leadership Contest. Each candidate submits a brochure containing his qualifications.

First place winners in the boys' and girls' divisions were John Yaple and Connie Felger. Each received $50, and their brochures were placed in state competition.

Receiving $25 apiece were second place winners Tim Thompson and Diane Williams.

Third place winners were Joe Raynes and Trudee Lewis, who received $15 apiece.

OUTSTANDING GIRLS AND BOYS CHOSEN

Vicki Latimer, Linda Leigh, Sue Conner, Kathy Rucker, Kay Newton, and Kathy Tilford were selected by the faculty as outstanding senior girls to be honored by the Business and Professional Women of Ashland. A tea for all senior girls and their mothers was given in June by the BPW in special honor of the six girls. At this tea Kathy Rucker, who was chosen the outstanding girl of the term, was awarded a savings bond.

Jon Roberson, Jan Susee, Tim Thompson, John Yapple, Don Scripter, and Terry Skibby were elected by the Student Council to be honored by the Kiwanians of Ashland for their exceptional contributions to school life. Also elected but not pictured were Ron Boyce and Gerald Brown.

STUDENT COUNCIL HONORS STUDENTS

Each six weeks, the Student Council chose an outstanding student to receive the honor of being citizen of the six weeks. This student must have brought recognition to Ashland High through various fields. Receiving the honor this year were seated: Kay Newton and Trudee Lewis; standing: Lyla Voth, Kathy Rucker, and Diane Williams.

Winners of the Ashland Elk's Lodge, #944, Most Valuable Student Contest were Kathy Rucker and Tim Thompson. This contest involves submitting a brochure containing each candidate's qualifications. Each student won $50 as the first place prize.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS WIN ACADEMIC HONORS

Kathy Rucker, Valedictorian

With a cumulative grade point average of 3.9544, Kathy Rucker was named valedictorian for the class of '64. In addition to maintaining a high G.P.A., Kathy has participated actively in Chess Club, National Honor Society, and the Girls' Recreational Association. For her service to the school she was chosen Business and Professional Women's Girl of the Year and was also named Citizen of the Six Weeks by the Student Council.

Tim Thompson, salutatorian of the graduating class, finished the school year with a G.P.A. of 3.9523. This versatile senior boy participated in many activities during high school and won various honors. He was president of the National Honor Society, a two-year member of the Humanities Seminar, a participant in the Saturday Classes for the able and gifted student held at Southern Oregon College, and a member of the varsity baseball team for two years. In addition to placing first in the Elk's Most Valuable Student Contest, Tim was named Outstanding Senior Boy by the high school faculty.

Tim Thompson, Salutatorian

A.F.S. STUDENT COMES FROM GERMANY

Ashland High School was lucky enough to have another foreign exchange student this year. As an active member of the student body, Chris Hoberg contributed much to our school and became a real friend to everyone.

She participated in International Relations League. By taking part in the senior class play and the all school show, Chris, a "terrific person" as all students called her, showed how talented a person she was.

Christiane Hoberg, American Field Service student from Hamburg, Germany.

The American Field Service organization sponsored a book fair in our school library to help finance an Ashland student who might be selected to go to a foreign country. Warren Stubblefield, Ed Swing, Cindy Forga, Marilyn Thompson, Dale Hile, Lloyd Stone, and Keith Acuff consider possible purchases.

MR. AND MISS A.H.S.

Selected by the senior class, Kay Newton and John Yaple were named Mr. and Miss A.H.S. for their activities and services to the school.

STUDENTS RECEIVE ATHLETIC AND MUSIC AWARDS

Through her work in the Varsity Band, Marcy Tretsven receives from Mr. Maddox, band director, the honor of being named the "outstanding bandman of Ashland High School for the year of 1963-64." For this honor she received a trophy and her name engraved on a large plaque. Other outstanding bandmen are John Reid, Charles Moore, and Roger Williams.

Gerald Brown receives a trophy from Mr. Crane, track coach, for being the outstanding trackman.

INDIVIDUAL STUDENTS WIN HONORS

The only girl chosen to participate in the Hearst Youth Senate Program, Trudee Lewis brought honor to A.H.S. She received this honor after being selected the outstanding girl student attending a student council workshop at the University of Oregon in the summer of 1963. This honor entitled her to a trip to Washington, D.C. She had a thrilling tour of the capitol and met Senators Morse and Neuberger. She also attended a tea at the White House. Trudee holds a flag which was flown over Washington, D.C., then given her.

Meredith Fischer, new to our school this year, was named "The Homemaker of Tomorrow of Ashland Senior High." She received this honor through her accomplishments in Homemaking IV.

Kathy Tilford won a $500.00 scholarship presented by the O.N.C. trucking lines. Over fifty candidates in this area applied for this scholarship.

DEBATE AND MUSIC STUDENTS HONORED

Each year outstanding musicians are honored by qualifying to attend state music conferences held in Portland. Qualifying for this honor this year were Charles Moore, State Band; Bill Alner, State Chorus; Marcy Tretsvan and John Reid, State Band. Steve Chapman participated in the State Orchestra.

Ashland High's debate team worked hard throughout the year, and their awards are the trophies they bring home. Teresa Krug presents her trophy to Connie Felger, who is accepting it for the student body. Other members of the debate team waiting to present their trophies are Marla Drew, Gary Gosha, Jon Roberson, April Lewis, and Trudee Lewis.

OTHER STUDENTS GAIN RECOGNITION

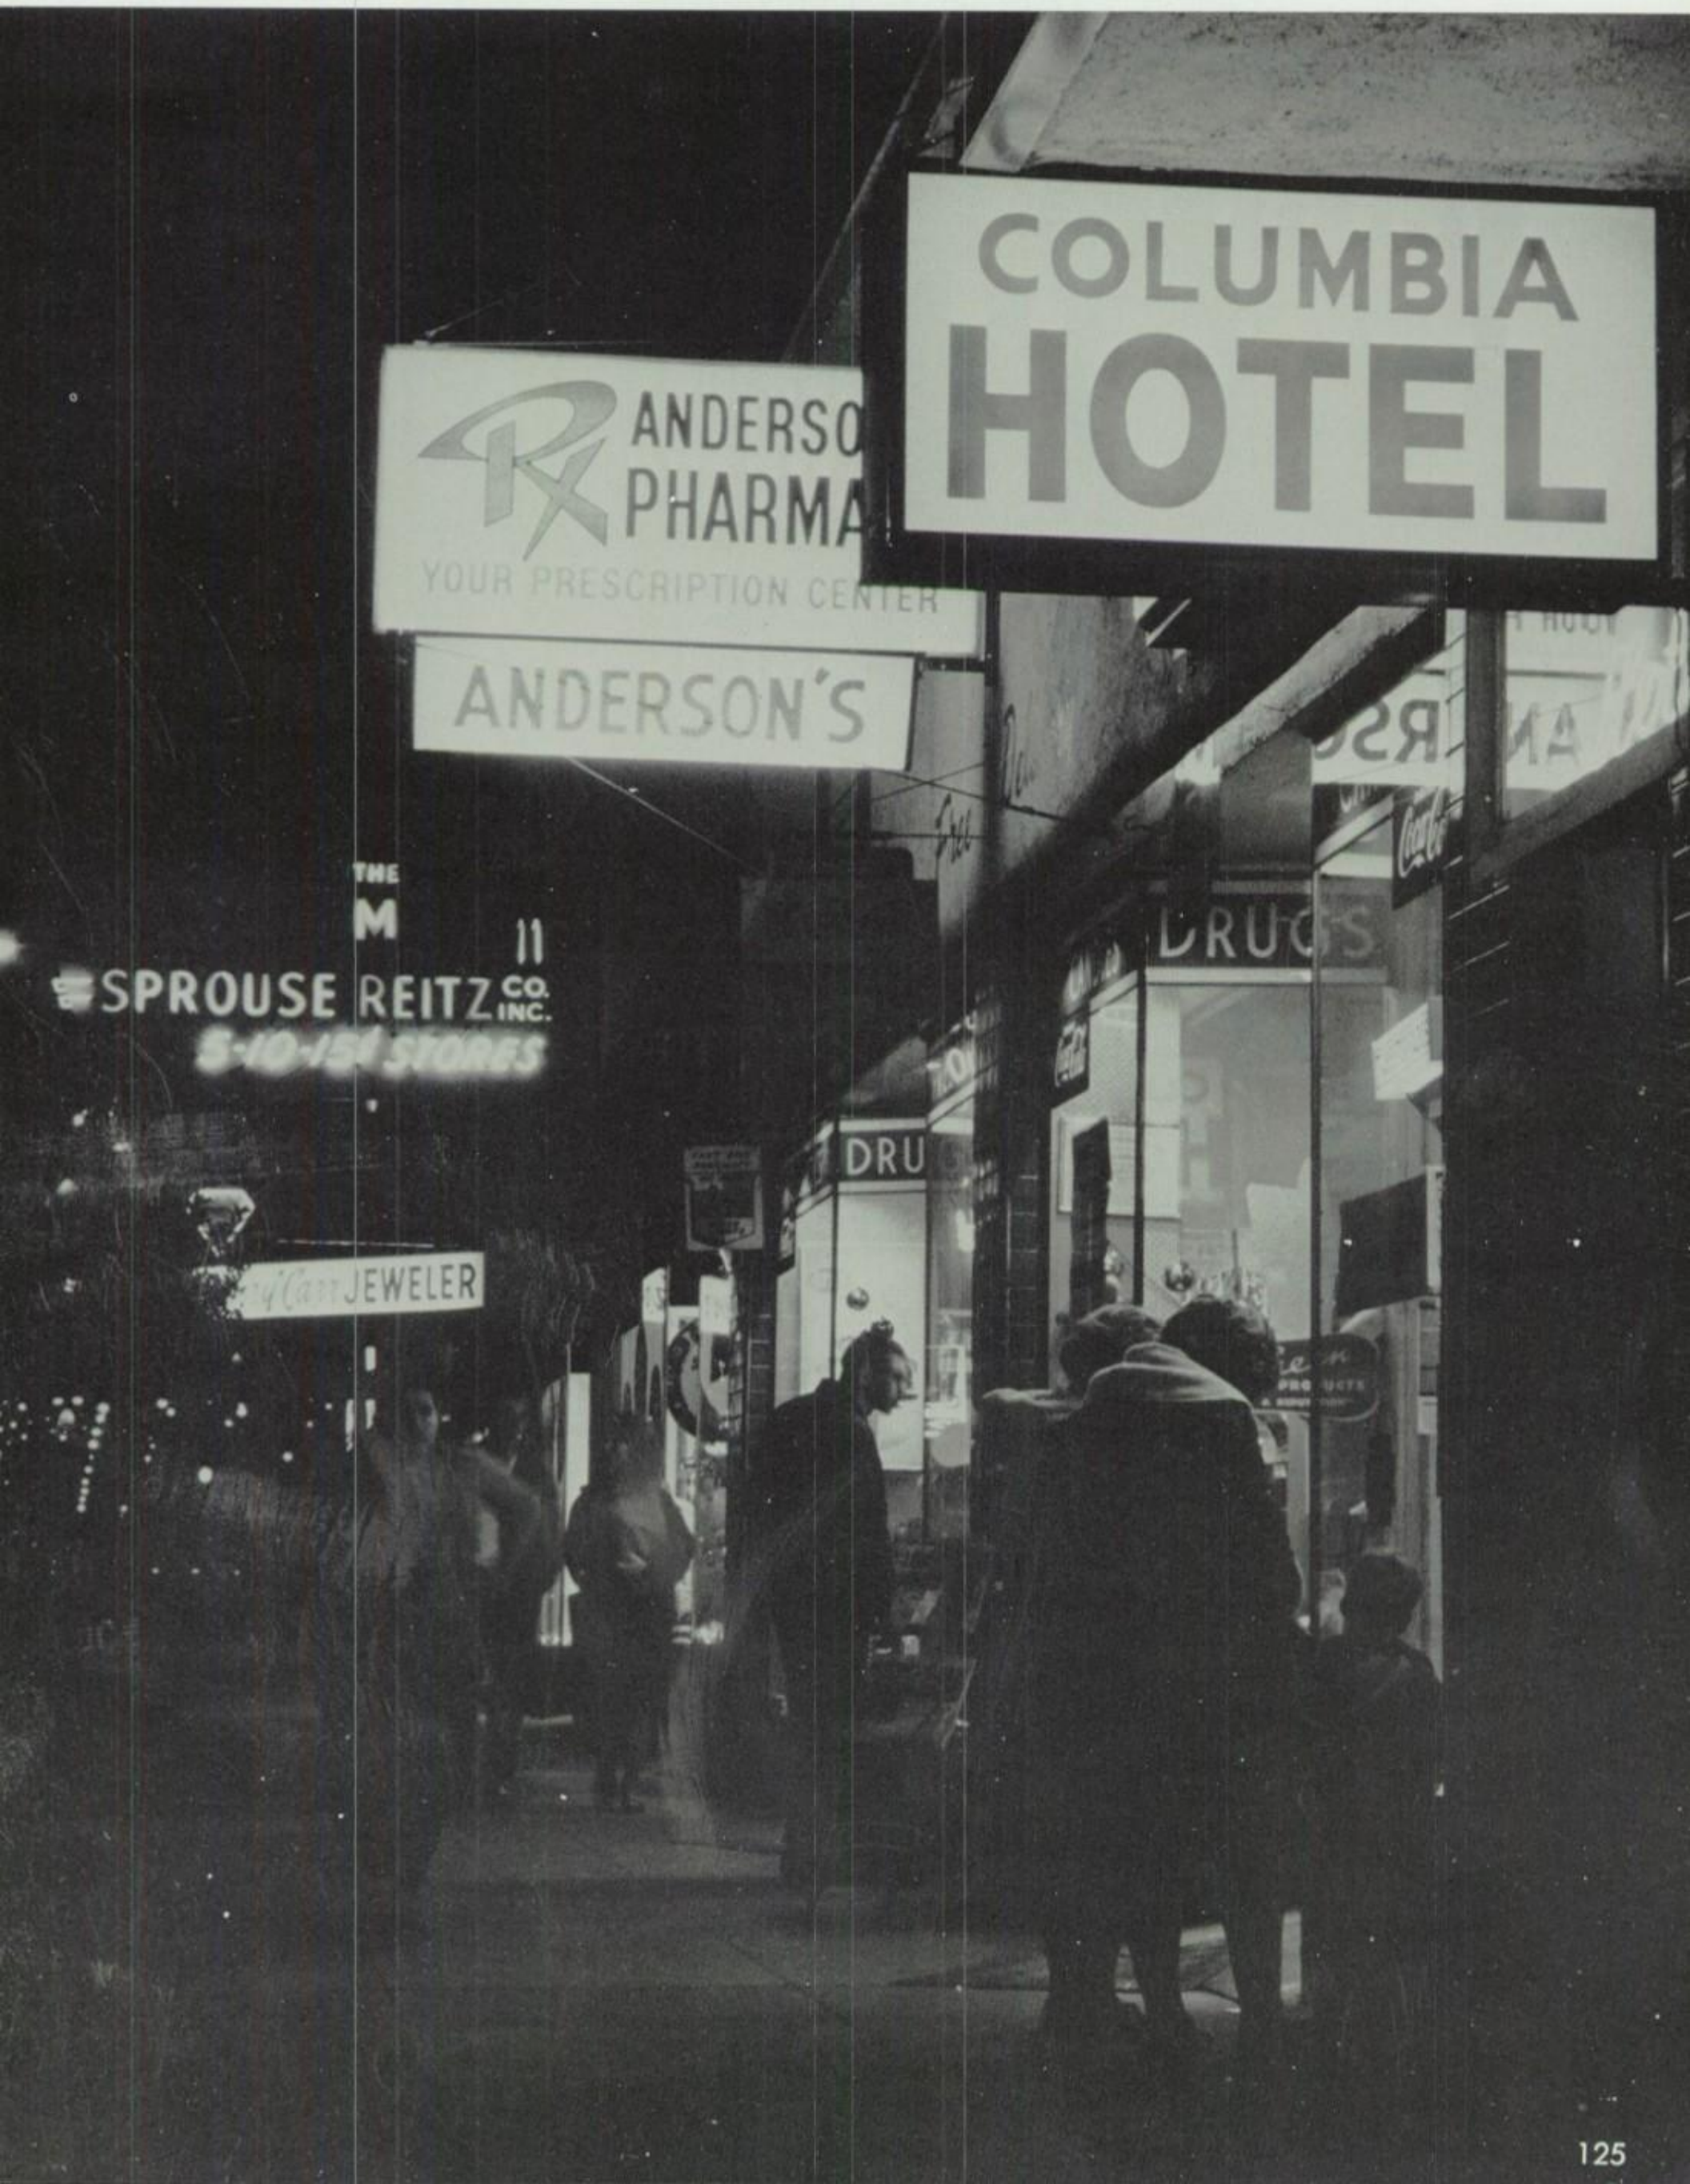

Always an active member of the student body throughout the school year, Pamela Lewis has contributed much to Ashland High spirit. Although blind, she has been an inspiration to everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. Shown here at a pep assembly, Pam demonstrates her school spirit.

SCHOOL IS LEARNING

Larry Turner experiments with the 6010 Minivac, one of the new teaching aids in the math department.

Keith Munson and one of the Rapp twins concentrate on learning the techniques of the slide rule.

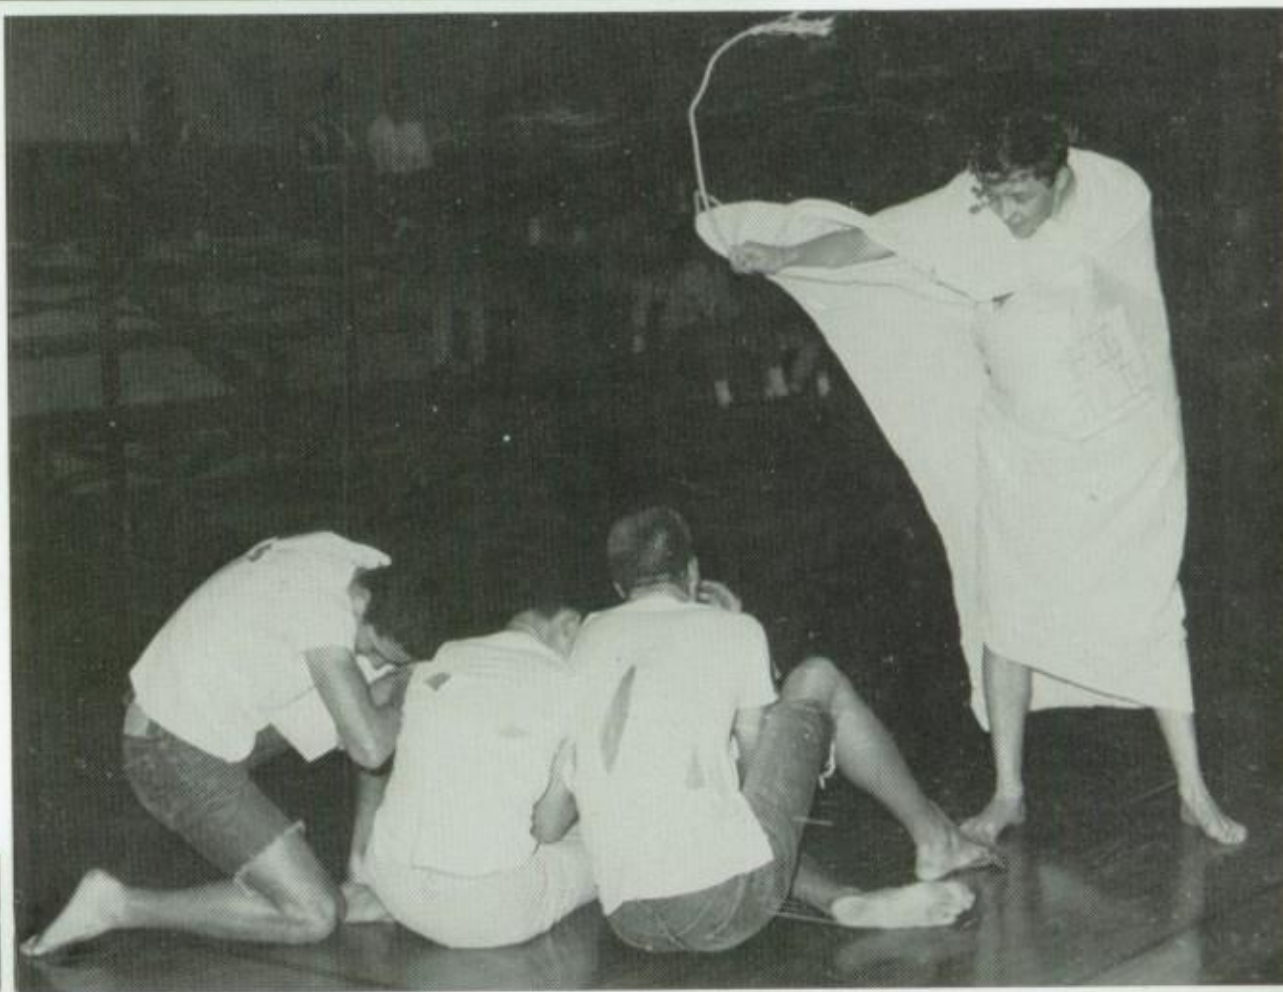

Roger Williams and Mike Blair gain valuable experience playing in the Pep Band.

SCHOOL IS SPIRIT

Claudia Young, Isobelle Converse, Janey McCarley, Dena Stewart, Vivian Leigh, and Candy McMonigal cheer enthusiastically when our team scored at a basketball game.

Tim Voth, Randy Nelson, and Terry Barraclough are sophomores taking part in a skit at a pep assembly.

Bill Alner and Rick Oliver give it all they've got in a competition yell during pep week.

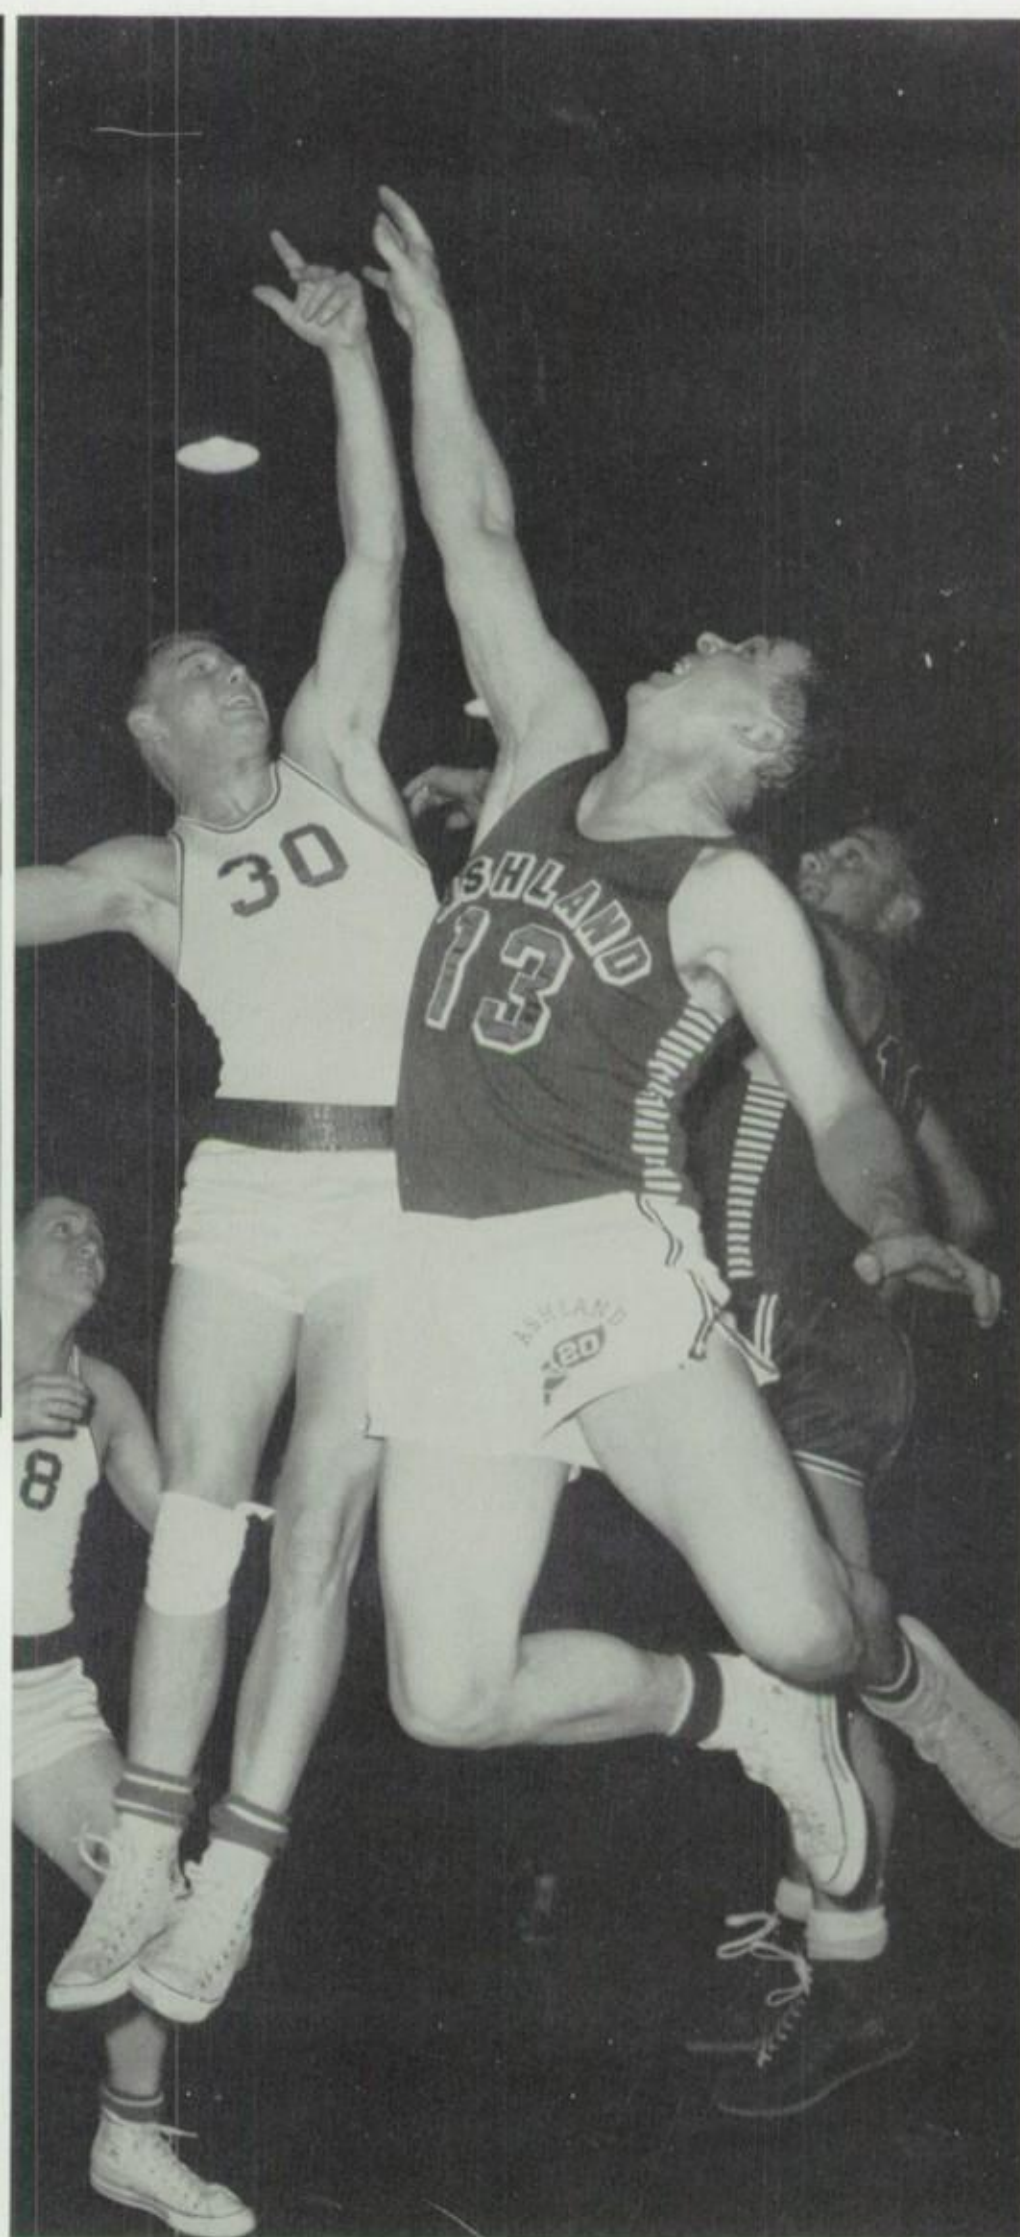

SCHOOL IS WORKING TOGETHER

John Yapple, Roland Sturdevant, Don Greene, and Linda Leigh help build the senior float for Homecoming.

Marcy Tretsven, April Lewis, and Chris Hoberg perform opening music for the Christmas program.

Jan Susee and Ron Boyce fight with Mr. Crane and Mr. Mobley for the ball in a friendly game between the Lettermen and faculty men.

SCHOOL IS FUN

During a scene from the all school show, Mr. Leybold, Mr. Gray, and Mr. Mobley carry Mr. Barlow out of sight.

Girls responding warmly to a skit about good-grooming put on by members of the Girls' League are Jane Smith and Pamela Lewis. Second row: Lynda Lewis, Sandra Roll, and Georgia Scofield. Third row: Connie Felger, Marcy Tretsven, Mary Brostad, and Lynne Jameson.
